Dear Colleague and Scientific Friends,

In 2010, the Department of Chemical Engineering, Faculty of Engineering, Thammasat University, has received a great honor to organize the 17th Regional Symposium on Chemical Engineering (RSCE2010) and the 20th Thailand Chemical Engineering and Applied Chemistry Conference (TIChE2010). RSCE has long been a tradition for chemical engineers in both academic institutions and industries in South East Asia and Asia Pacific regions while TIChE is usually for organizations within Thailand. The RSCE2010 (presentation in English) and TIChE2010 (presentation in Thai) will be held on November 22-23, immediately after Loy-Kratong festival, a colorful and joyful celebration paying respect to the river goddess.
